LHC Program Needs Coordination

A program of this unprecedented scale, coordination is undoubtedly crucial.

Coordination among theorists beneficial/rewarding.

Coordination among theorists beneficial/rewarding.

At this information (explosion) era,
a Wiki page may serve the purpose well:

- Collect/update information/tools for LHC physics;
- Latest theoretical and experimental developments;
- Posting your own thoughts and results;

- Need your thoughts:

how to make the page useful: for you and for the community;

- Need volunteers:

contribute to the group pages;

or serve as a “coordinator/convenor”;

- Need your (constant) inputs/involvements:

to make it useful/popular for LHC physics in the LHC era!
